

International Shipping Guide

Sakakikaen Co., Ltd. — Japanese-grown Sakaki, shipped from Izu, Shizuoka, Japan

How overseas orders work

1. Contact us at contact@sakakikaen.com with the size (35–60 cm), quantity, and destination country.
2. Shipping is freight collect: carriage charges are paid by the recipient (for example, billed to your own FedEx account). We do not add any handling margin to shipping.
3. Product prices are listed at sakakikaen.com/pricing (prices adjust daily based on demand and stock).

Rates above exclude the carrier's fuel surcharge and any special-handling fees, which are added by the carrier. Under freight collect, the final amount is billed by the carrier to the recipient at the recipient's own account rates, which may differ from this reference list.

Important notes

Plant quarantine. Sakaki is fresh plant material. Many countries require a phytosanitary certificate and/or an import permit for fresh cut foliage, and some destinations do not allow it. Please check your country's plant-quarantine rules before ordering; export inspection procedures on the Japanese side will be confirmed with you at the time of order. Depending on the destination, shipment may not be possible.

Freshness. International courier services do not provide refrigerated transport. Transit is typically 1–5 business days depending on the destination. We harvest to order and ship promptly to preserve freshness.

Duties and taxes. Any import duties and taxes in the destination country are borne by the recipient.
